

REMARKS

The lengthy specification has been checked and appropriate amendments have been made in the previous response to the Office Action.

The applicant accepts the Claim rejections based on 35 USC 112, 35 USC 102 and 35 USC 103 put forward by the examiner on the basis of the cited references.

Regarding the objected Claims 19, 20, 22-26 and 29, the applicant rewrote these claims in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and of the intervening claims.

Claims 23, 24, and 26 have been canceled as redundant after the amendments. Some corrections have been made to the terminology of the amended claims without introduction of new matter.

In case a patent is granted to this application, it should be noted to the Publication Department that pages 14 and 18 of the original patent application are missing from the text of the corresponding published Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0092025. More specifically, page 14 of the original patent application is missing from paragraph [0005] after the words: "The method is used" in the ultimate line of the left column of Page 1, and page 18 of the original application is missing from paragraph [0055] in the left column of page 5 after the words: "... it is sufficient to open the ..." in lines 4, 5 of the aforementioned paragraph.

CONCLUSION

For all the above reasons, the applicant submits that the specification and claims are now in proper form, and that the claims all define patentably over the prior art.

Therefore, the applicant submits that this application is now in condition for allowance, which action he respectfully solicits.

Conditional Request for Constructive Assistance

Applicant has made a diligent effort to amend the claims of this application so that they define novel structure, which is also unobvious. This will enable the undersigned to place this application in fully allowable condition as soon as possible and without the need for further proceedings. The Examiner is authorized to make any needed minor corrections or changes.

Very respectfully,
